To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to provide this letter of reference for Dr. Guy Peh. My association with him spans nearly two decades, during which I have consistently observed his exceptional character and unwavering integrity. Dr. Peh and his wife have undertaken extensive global outreach, focusing on education and advocacy with remarkable fervor and dedication.

Their humanitarian initiatives have significantly impacted and enhanced communities in some of the world's most challenging environments. Dr. Peh possesses an astute intellectual capacity, complemented by a rigorous discipline in his commitment to empowering others. His achievements are well-documented, including a series of scholarly publications that align with advanced academic standards.

His profound understanding of the Kingdom of God and his ability to articulate these concepts with exceptional clarity sets him apart as a leading authority in this domain within his generation.

To give a little background, I oversee a network of churches, including several church campuses in our city. We have a multi-million dollar senior assisted living community housing over one hundred residents and employing around one hundred and twenty-five employees. We have several charter schools with a census of over 400 students. We do outreach programs to meet the needs of the most indigent in our community. I have worked with thousands, and in my experience, I have rarely found people with the competence and compassion of Dr. Guy and Ilke Peh.

I offer my unequivocal endorsement for him and his esteemed wife, Ilke. I firmly believe they merit your utmost consideration for accreditation.

Sincerely,

Dr. M Dana Gammill
